Another Surprise in the way of a Coin Sale! See page Ten.

B. MAX MEHL
NUMISMATIST
MEHL BUILDING
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

This Number of My Coin Circular is just a little late,—only about six months. But what does six months matter in the life of a coin dealer or among friends. All, or nearly all items which appear in this circular, and in fact which will appear in the August issue, have been in type since last December and January.

But I had to do a Marathon race with my Ten Eyck Sale. Catalogued that huge collection, watched over the printing of the catalog, sold and PAID for the entire collection within a period of about six months. When I tell you that I know of collections held elsewhere for nearly three years before they appear in catalog form, you will realize that I had to go some.

But that is ancient history. Here we are again with what I believe an interesting and varied assortment of coins. Pick out the coins you want. Send me your order for them now. You know satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

THANKS FOR THEM KIND WORDS.

Compliments for the COIN CIRCULAR are still "pouring" in, but like Rube Goldberg would say, "they don't mean anything"—unless an order comes with them. My printer absolutely refuses to accept bouquets in payment for printing. Uncle Sam, of course, since he is now Republican, and I—in the words of Elmer Sears—a damned Democrat—insists upon cold cash for his postage stamps. So, you see, brother, it requires something else besides bouquets to keep up this COIN CIRCULAR. So if you like it well enough to receive it regularly, I don't mind telling you kindly, if bluntly, that since my mailing list runs 'way up into the thousands, an order from you now and then, however small, will be about the necessary salve to get that good looking mailing clerk of mine to keep you on the live list.

THE HUGE GOLD COIN

offered in the November COIN CIRCULAR has been sold. Here is another. Not quite as large, both in price and size,— but it's a beauty!

Japan Gold Koban, about 1800. Measures 3 1-8 x 5 3-8 inches; weighs 73 pwt. Fine grade of gold. In practically mint condition. Extremely rare. Price, $110.

Since the World War

a great deal of interest has been manifested, and rightly so, in the coins of the world. One of the pleasures of our hobby is not only in the possession of the coins, but in showing them to our friends, non collectors as well as collectors. And you must admit that whatever your specialty may be, you must have a few "strangers" in your collection in order to lend it "atmosphere".

Here is assortment of interesting and moderately priced

I Fully Understand Now

why the Rochester, N. Y., bunch of collectors are so alive and always full of pep. I see they have among them a fellow named Case-beer. Hope to be led to him on my next visit to Rochester.

ALL YOU FELLOWS

who have been asking for Coin Cabinets take notice.

Here is a

COIN CABINET FOR SALE.

Oak cabinet, 11 drawers with two knobs on each. The Cabinet measures over all, 25 inches wide, 22 inches high and 12½ inches deep. It is a well made cabinet, especially appropriate for an ordinary collection. Price $20.00. The express will probably be around $2.00. First order with remittance gets it. Don't write and ask me if I still have it. If you want the cabinet and you have the twenty dollars, send it along. I will either send you the cabinet or return you the money.

DID YOU KNOW that there are Pilgrim Half Dollars dated 1921 as well as those dated 1920? I have both dates. Price, one dollar and a half each.

The NEW KING BEE of the American Coinage!

The 1798 $5.00 gold piece, with small eagle reverse, which brought $5,250.00 at my sale of the James Ten Eyck Collection. This is the highest record price ever realized for a single coin of the regular U. S. Coinage.

The total amount realized at the sale was $45,638.42—the greatest average per lot of any coin sale ever held in the United States.

AND ---

as a starter for my next season --

I am pleased to announce that

MR. H. E. RAWSON

of BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Has placed with me his very valuable collection of choice gold and silver coins, which I shall offer at auction in the usual -- unusually successful Mehl style.

This sale, while not another Ten Eyck -- contains a number of rarities that will make you sit up and take notice!

WHAT WOULD YOU GIVE

for a piece of silverware formerly owned by George Washington? Here is a Coin Made From Washington Silver, the first coin of the U. S. Mint, the Martha Washington Half Disme, 1792, with bust said to be that of Martha Washington; Small flying eagle on reverse. The silver for these rare pieces was furnished by George Washington from his private silver plate. Very rare and in great demand. An uncirculated specimen was recently purchased by me at the Jenks Sale, for which I paid $92.50. This is not unc. It's good to very good. I claim it is a bargain at $14.00.

NEW STATE COINS

Alabama Half Dollar; not a bad looking coin at all, ... $1.50

Missouri Half Dollar, new type. It won't win any beauty prize, ... 1.50

Maine Half Dollar, the only claim this state has for Numismatic fame (?) 1.50

Illinois Centenial Half Dollar. According to my humble opinion, the most beautiful of all commemorative halves 1.50

NEW YORK STATE

Not a "commemorative" Issue. Sing Sing Prison Token Money. Were used "within" as money. Set consists of "five", "ten", "twenty-five", and "fifty". The "five" is brass; others alluminum. Unc. Very scarce. The set, $1.50.

Necessity Money.

I know you'll say that ALL money is necessity money. That's true. But the following is money issued when no other kind of a medium of exchange was available.

Encased Postage stamps of the War between the States, (not Civil War as the Yanks term it).

One Cent. Stamp of the period, 1861-1865, encased in a metal frame under mica. $2.25.

Five Cents. Scarce, $3.50. Ten Cents, $3.75.

Speaking of NEW DOLLARS

Did you get the 1921 Regular issue of the Denver and San Francisco Mints? For fear that you missed out on them, I am handing you this bit of information; that I have them both at $2.25 each for the S. mint, and three dollars each for the Denver mint. These ARE scarce, especially the Denver.

It's not necessary for you to go to war and get yourself bumped off in order to get some

BEAUTIFUL WAR DECORATIONS

Here is a fine and beautiful lot to pick from.. All have had the O. K. of Mr. Wood, curator of the Amer. Numis. Society. 9li guaranteed absolutely genuine and all in perfect unc. condition.

These are far more beautiful than mere words can describe. Get a few now. They will add a great deal of interest and romance to your collection.

take a chance when your order is not too large and send remittance with it. It's much easier for me, if not quite so pleasant,—to return your remittance if items ordered are sold out than to send on approval with the necessity of making out invoice, charging in ledger, etc. Most of the items offered are "specials"—only one in stock. Remember, your money back without argument or question if not satisfactory, providing you return the coin before you let the baby try its new teeth on it.

ALSO, when ordering, order about twice as much as you remit for. Don't worry, I'll not send you more than what's coming to you, but it will insure your not being disappointed, and incidentally will insure my getting ALL you send.

B. MAX MEHL.

"I sincerely hope you continue to issue your COIN CIRCULAR, as it is a great help to collectors."

E. C. K., Holyoke, Mass.

Thanks, Mr. K., I like that "great help to collectors." Glad that some one recognizes my philanthrophic tendencies. You know, professional numismatists are too modest (?) to acclaim their virtues. It's good, therefore, to have some one relieve us of the burden of telling you that most of our efforts are for the good of humanity."

was left over, so I thought I'd be nice to myself and print something which reads nicely to me but which was invented without my solicitation by some whom I take the liberty of calling friends:—

"Your Coin Circular" is a very fine idea. Will gladly subscribe for it at any time you set a price for it."

J. F., Warrensville, Ohio.

No, thanks. This is one time when I keep the advantage of being an out and out free lance. By giving you something for nothing, I can't be kicked at when the something isn't forthcoming.
